Reflection

Jn 6:50-69

We need the gifts of 'spirit and life' else we will be like those disciples who no longer went about with Jesus. He was there in front of them but they could not recognize who he really was. We must not think that only some people are given the gift of faith: no, the Spirit is poured out on everyone, and Jesus' abiding desire is give everyone life to the full.

The words of Jesus causes a split among his followers and some ceased to follow him but it provoked a great act of faith from Peter "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life"; which is comparable to the profession of Martha "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God" (John 11:27).

To follow Jesus is to walk forward in faith, understanding that other would-be bearers of truth can never satisfy us. It is to say, whatever happens, "You have the words of eternal life".

Just when Jesus had fully revealed Himself, when he was at his most vulnerable, people walked away. Can you step into Him and reveal what that must be like, that as soon as you reveal who you really are people can't take you and walk away.

Jesus turns to those closest to him, is he in trepidation at being rejected by all? "Do you also wish to go away?" It must have been hugely relieving and confirming to hear the response "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life."

On what grounds do people walk away from Jesus today? How much is He and His message distorted by a flawed Church? To what extent have you walked away from Jesus and what makes you draw near to Him?

Jesus, seeking to lead his hearers beyond dependence on earthly bread, finds himself misunderstood by many of those who had been disciples. They turn back. Am I ever confounded or scandalized by his words? Do I ever turn back?

Peter may not understand the full import of what Jesus is saying but he knows what is essential: 'You have the words of eternal life'. To follow Jesus is to walk forward in faith, understanding that other would-be bearers of truth can never satisfy us. It is to say, whatever happens, 'You have the words of eternal life'.
