Invitation to all sisters in Christ,

A year ago, we formed a group of 7 sisters in Christ to join the Seven Sisters Apostolate, https://sevensistersapostolate.org/.

Catholic parishes across the United States have joined this beautiful apostolate to pray for our priests.

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop—a "holy wasting" (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ.

St. Sharbel's 7 sisters are committed to pray for one Holy Hour per week for Abouna Christopher.

If the Holy Spirit is calling you to make this commitment, please contact Nadia Redmond at 503-671-0440 or email: n.redmond@comcast.net

Life and Dignity for All

June 22 – June 29, 2022

Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all. Beginning June 22, the feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the USCCB invites Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom. Saints Thomas More and John Fisher were Renaissance men, talented and energetic. More wrote theological and philosophical treatises, while making a career as a lawyer and government official. Bishop John Fisher worked as an administrator at Cambridge, confronted the challenge Martin Luther presented to Christian Europe, and most importantly served as Bishop of Rochester. More and Fisher are well-known for opposing King Henry's divorce. Ultimately, it was their refusal to sign an oath of supremacy that led them to be executed. King Henry VIII claimed to be the supreme head of the Church in England, asserting sovereign power over English Christians. Neither Fisher nor More could abide this claim which put them in conflict with the king and they were convicted of treason. Saint Thomas Moore's story is depicted in a wonderful movie, "A Man For All Seasons". Saint Thomas More and Saint John Fisher show us what faithful citizenship looks like. They loved and served their country. In the moments just before his execution, More is said to have stated, "I die the King's good servant, but God's first." When the law of the king came into conflict with the law of Christ, they submitted to Christ. May their example continue to illuminate the path for us, as we seek to faithfully serve our Church and country. We ask for the intercession of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, that we too would be good servants to our country, but God's first! # Reflection

We continue to celebrate the great season of Pentecost this Sunday and will continue to do so until the Feast of the Holy Cross in September. One might ask why we do not simply have Ordinary Time like the Latin Church. It is because by means of our calendar we recognize the need to celebrate the great Feast of Pentecost not only for a day or a week, but for an entire season for on Pentecost the Church received the Spirit that gives and perfects all things in us. Every breath we take and every action we make is only possible because we have been animated by the Spirit, and the graces we receive through the Church are only possible because the Spirit dwells amongst and in us. As Christians, we find consolation in knowing the same Spirit that governs all things has made us His dwelling by baptism and He is with us at all times, as Christ promised when He said in today's gospel, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid" (John 14:27).

Throughout all of Scripture the Spirit inspired the prophets and Evangelists to write again and again the phrase "Do not be afraid." To Isaiah He says, "Do not be afraid, for I am your God" (Is. 41:10). In the oft-quoted Psalm, King David affirms this by saying, "Even when I walk through the darkest valley, I will not be afraid, for you [God] are close beside me" (Ps.23:4). And when God reveals His plan to Mary, His own Mother, and Zechariah, Jesus' uncle, He assures them both by saying, "Do not be afraid" (Luke 1:30, 13). Throughout all of history, God has assured us to not fear because He is with us, and this promise is fulfilled in the indwelling of the Spirit in the baptized. We are assured not to fear if God is for us, who can be against us (Rom. 8:31)? The same God who has made all things and can do all things dwell within us, and no better ally can be found. But when Christ promises His Holy Spirit, He immediately recognizes that He does "not give to you as the world gives." The peace which Christ gives us in the Spirit is eternal, but it is also not easy. For Christ says, "If a man loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him" (John 14:23), and sometimes keeping the word of Christ on Earth encounters a lack of peace in the world. Christ Himself assures us that the world hated Him too for acting with love in the world, yet that is what we are called to do as Christians. To be Christian means that we love one another and God with all our heart, mind and soul (Mark 12:30-31). Then, and only then, we shall find eternal peace with God even if the world, which is only fleeting and will pass away, takes issue with what we do. The world is fleeting but God is eternal, and so we should not fear if we love God and act accordingly for the eternal God will not allow His loved ones to perish but they shall live forever. Perhaps we might encounter great and many problems, but those, too, are only temporary.

With this confidence that God shall keep all things too great from us and give us the strength to bear all the troubles that we are presented with, let us recall:

Hallelujah! "Three walls surround me," says the Church, "And the Insolent One [Satan] is unable to enter my enclosure and destroy me for the three interlock together, and there is no space in between the walls for another. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are the three walls and I am placed between them like a glorious bride!" Hallelujah, accept our petition. (From the Maronite Rite of Kneeling for Pentecost)
